DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Chad Wells on 6/20/07.

The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel claims 6 and 13.

In claim 1, line 16, "portion" has been deleted and replaced by --hemi-circle--.

In claim 1, line 20, after "protrusion", insert --, and has a shaped of which a width increases gradually toward a top part of the hemi-circle--.

In claim 7, line 26, after "upper", insert --hemi-circle of an--.

In claim 7, line 30, after "protrusion", insert --, and has a shaped of which a width increases gradually toward a top part of the hemi-circle--.

Examiner's Statement for Reasons of Allowance

This Office Action is responsive to the Amendment After Final filed on 6/8/07 in conjunction with the Interview Summary Paper No. 20070620. Claims 1-5, 7, and 9-12 are pending. Claims 6 and 13 have been cancelled.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art cited below (US Patent No. 2,613,837) fails to teach or suggest the recited shape of a laundry discharge part which has a width that increases gradually toward a top part of a hemi-circle of an inner circumference.

The prior art made of record is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Morton (US Patent No. 2,613,837) teaches a laundry gasket with a lip 62 and wall 55 formed on the left-side of the gasket, and a reverse bend 64, part 69, and baffle 71 on the far right-side of the gasket for preventing water from entering either singularly, or in combination, the access opening 13, tub 22, or basket 25.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
